Spaz Hands

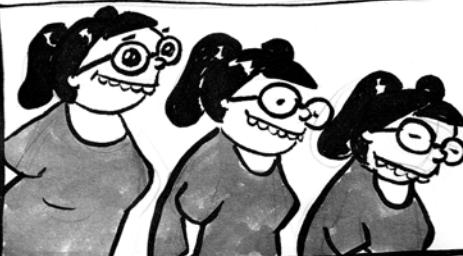

Singing up

I signed up for the 2013 Cartooning Studio workshop as soon as I could.

and....

Then I had to wait months to go.

But one day, it was upon me.

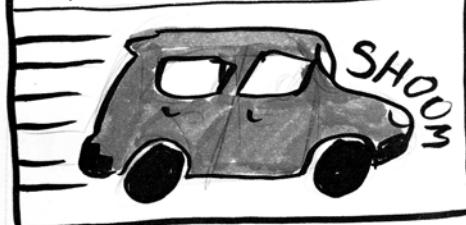

ARRIVED

We had to leave Abe's mom's wedding reception early ...

... so Abe could drive me to the airport.

For some reason, I was a nervous wreck about the airport.

Security check was actually pretty quick.

What was I so worried about?

I got there with plenty of time to spare.

Pew. Now I just have to wait an hour until midnight to board.

Taxi to the hotel

After about 17 hours of travel, I finally got to the last airport and needed to get to the hotel.

The airport guy (yeah, one) recommended Big Yellow Taxi.

The driver noticed my necklace or my shawl.

Then I, of course, got to talk about why I was in tiny White River Junction.

Starting the workshop - ~~and the comic jam!~~

Finally, the workshop. After introducing ourselves, we did a comic jam.
(that I forgot to grab!)

Fast, furious, faster, furioser

John Chad was the organizer of the workshop.

Alec Longstreth was the other teacher and an awesome time tyrant.

Jaurel was "Jon's" TA, which was my side of the room and had lots of helpful comments.

Luke, the "Irish Lion" (which I originally read as the "Irish Loin") was super helpful in the extra-workshop classes.

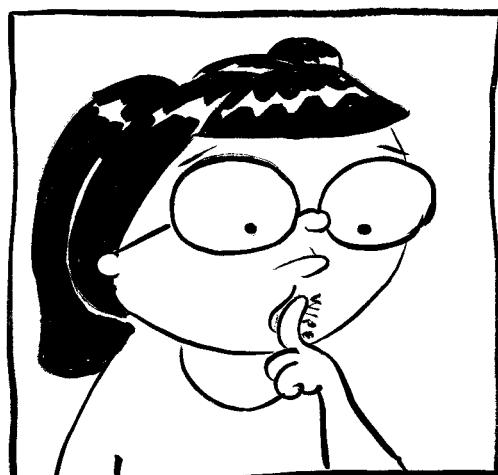

And Lizzy the intern who was doing some awesome doodles during class time.
